

Hide the minibeast!

This moth hides on the trunks of trees during the day. Do some bark rubbings so that the moth appears to be hidden or camouflaged.

Choose some coloured pencils or wax crayons, and find a tree nearby with interesting bark. Place this paper on the bark of the tree and rub over it firmly and smoothly using the side of your wax crayon or pencil. Watch the pattern appear!

